

APRIL 2010

QUESTION OF THE MONTH

My dog is such a good dog. So why does he/she become such a monster on a leash when I meet another dog?

This behavior has its root in territorial based aggression. When your dog is free to encounter other dogs without the encumbrance of a leash or fence, they are free to say to the other dog how they truly feel. There are a couple of things that happen to make the on-leash greeting bad. Click here to read more.

APRIL 2010 DOG OF THE MONTH

MR. RILEY GATES

Our dog of the month for April 2010 is none other than Mr. Riley Gates. Riley lives with his mom and dad, Laura and Jim in Wheaton. Often Riley comes with his Uncle Dexter to daycare. Riley is a lovely Golden Retriever who loves to play ball (or eat them if left to make his own decisions). Riley has one particularly special trick he likes to share with his friends while he is here. He gets a tennis ball and lays flat out on his back with his legs in the air and tosses the ball in the air with his front paws and catches it again with his paws and mouth. Very cute indeed. Though Riley loves all of his human companions here his particular favorite is Roni. He loves Roni to bits.
